

Ridin' with the Outlaws

The Javelina 2002

By Karen Sue Wroughton

The Whining swine winner, Jim Verrechia

Good roads, good weather and good food! Three out of three is not too shabby for the 2002 Javelina 100. A contingent of Outlaws headed up the back roads of Arizona for Prescott, via Wickenburg and Yarnell, while the rest of our favorite henchmen swooped in from California, Colorado, New Mexico and Florida! (via Scottsdale)

Mike and I must say thanks to Robin and Mary Hansen for once again having the drinks and snacks ready to go at the poolside Friday evening welcome party. Thanks to Don Kaitz for a "stinkin to high heaven" quiz and thanks to Barb Crowley for assisting Mike at the registration so I could go out and mingle.

No long article this time, just a collection of photographs to make you wish you had joined the herd at the corral. Come mosey along with us soon.

Our local snow bunny, Billie Henry

Standing on a corner in Winslow, Arizona

On the road again with Rusty and Winston. (Last year's featured interviewees!)

Rusty's owners, King and Carol Clemens honored for the longest drive just to party with the Outlaws.

La Posada, former hacienda and railroad stop in Winslow, AZ

Lunching under the sun in Cottonwood, AZ